JANUARY 2018

"Let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven." Matt. 5: 16

What Will Be God's Call To St. Luke's In 2018?

"But I with the voice of thanksgiving will sacrifice to you; what I have vowed I will pay. Deliverance belongs to the LORD!" Then the LORD spoke to the fish, and it spewed Jonah out upon the dry land." [Jonah 2:9-10]

Most of us are familiar with the story of Jonah whom God had said "Go at once to Nineveh, that great city..." (Jonah 1:2a). But what does Jonah do, instead? He tries to run away from God by high-tailing it in the opposite direction towards Tarshish. Jonah, in his effort to flee from God's presence runs into all kinds of trouble, not the least of which is finding himself as the main course of a large fish's dinner! How's that for an invitation to a meal (invited as dinner instead of to dinner)! Humor aside, God was with Jonah inside the fish's belly three days and three nights. A good thing! And Jonah, coming to his senses, prays to the LORD. God hears Jonah's cry and causes the fish to spew him out (alive, thankfully!) onto dry land.

"Like Jonah with God, this season of the Epiphany marks the time when God calls us to follow Christ into the world—to bear the Light of Christ wherever the Spirit may lead us. But the choice to follow or not to follow lies in large part with us as the faith community here in Chester."

—Rev. Heidi L. Edson

It is no accident, I believe, that we hear this story of God's call to Jonah in this start of a new calendrical year in the life of the Church. Like Jonah with God, this season of the Epiphany marks the time when God calls us to follow Christ into the world—to bear the Light of Christ wherever the Spirit may lead us. But the choice

Annual Parish Meeting & Potluck Bunch Is Sunday, January 21st

St. Luke's Annual Parish Meeting & Potluck Bunch will be held on Sunday, January 21st, following the ONE 9:00 a.m. Service (Rite II) held in Willard Hall.

The format is slightly changed this year in that we will hold the Annual Parish Meeting first and conclude with our Potluck Brunch to enjoy food and fellowship. All church members are encouraged to attend this important meeting to discuss and learn about important decisions being made in the life of our church community. Items for discussion on the agenda will include St. Luke's 2018 Budget proposal, Annual Reports, and the election of new Vestry member(s) and the 2018 Delegates to the Diocesan Convention that will be held in early November. Note that copies of the Annual Report Booklet will be available in church on Sunday, January 14, to give everyone an opportunity to read through the various reports before the meeting.

Janet Hunter will be coordinating the Parish Potluck Brunch, so be sure to let her know what kinds of food you will be bringing for the meal.

The Annual Parish Meeting is a vital event in our faith community and all church members are urged to attend. Your voices, concerns and support need to be heard. So please mark your calendars and plan to be there on Sunday, January 21st. (See Nominating Committee Report on pg. 6.)

Looking Forward To A Happy & (Spiritually) Prosperous New Year!

Ringing in 2018 from my sickbed, I was too sick even to drink the traditional martini to my Mum's memory. But I did have the wherewithal to blearily wonder what the New Year holds for me, and what it holds for St. Luke's. Like St. Luke's, I'll be living on a reduced budget this year. Happily for me, that gives me a few more hours of personal time.

My last New Year's resolution was made maybe twenty years ago and it was: I will never make another New Year's resolution. That's the only resolution I have ever successfully kept! Nonetheless, my plan is to use my reclaimed time for rug hooking, reading and visiting with friends. I have the hope (not "resolution!") that I'll also give more time to my spiritual life. Since I haven't been participating in the Monday Lunch Bunch book study and prayer group in recent months, I have let that discipline dwindle and I notice the difference in my spiritual energy. So, I am hoping to increase my reading of thought- and Spirit-provoking books and prayer. I really hope to get to a retreat soon. I used to make sure to do that at least three times per year. (If you'd be interested in joining me, there is always a good Lenten Retreat at Rock Point.)

Perhaps you've pulled your Episcopal socks back on after my last month's column, or perhaps you don't really read it carefully (that's fine!). The punch line was that given our current trajectory, St. Luke's can continue to survive for about ten years. That makes me think in a very selfish way. What would I miss if St. Luke's ceased to exist? I'd miss the music, especially contributing to worship through singing and reading the word of God. I would miss Communion and the special seasonal liturgical services. I'd miss Heidi's and Doug's Sunday studies, often challenging us to think outside of our accustomed boxes. The building is historical and beautiful and holds all these special people and events, but, for me, it is not "the Church."

Mostly, "the Church" is the people and I would sorely miss the dear community that provides such a Ministry of caring to members of the Body.

I'm inviting each of us to give thought to these

to follow or not to follow lies in large part with us as the faith community here in Chester.

January marks the time of year when we, as the St. Luke's faith community in Chester, Vermont begin to set our sights ahead. We wonder what this year of 2018 may have in store for us. I see several choices before us: we can hear God's challenge for us to venture out beyond our comfort zones by being open to new experiences and opportunities God may have in store for us; or we can (Jonah's first choice) try and hold tightly to what it is we already have. The first choice leads to unexpected blessings and joys because our faith tradition compels us to actively participate in the work of God's Kingdom. The second choice, however, may find us, if we're not careful, inside the belly of traditionalism where significant change is neither expected nor desired.

Jonah eventually obeyed God's call and, as a result, God surprised him by saving the entire city. I hope that we, too, as the St. Luke's community will allow ourselves to be surprised by God this year because we have chosen to follow Christ's path wherever that may lead us. So, what are we waiting for? Let's get going!

Blessings, Heidi+

questions: What would you miss? What does St. Luke's mean to you? What is indispensable to your spiritual life?

Then consider, What might you and we build on to strengthen our spiritual lives, individually and as the corporate Body? This asks us to take responsibility and action for our future spiritual welfare.

And who knows what God may do?

Looking forward to a Happy and (Spiritually) Prosperous New Year!

The Christmas Tea & Sale Was A Fun-Filled Day

It could not have been a better day weather-wise as St. Luke's held their annual Christmas Tea & Sale on December 1st. It was also a great day participation-wise as folks seemed to be out and about throughout the entire day. The festive atmosphere in Willard Hall was enhanced with live piano music generously provided by Martha Stretton during the early portion of the day. We observed lots of smiles, warm hugs, shared laughter and plenty of joyful conversations filling the room. And isn't this one of our underlying missions at St. Luke's—to make connections and share God's love with our friends and neighbors?

We are so grateful to all the helping hands that make this fundraising event a success both from a standpoint of sharing God's love with the larger community as well as providing much-needed funds for the church budget. The kitchen crew, under Jane Davis, once again outdid themselves in creating a fabulous food display on the buffet table. Sally Hoover knows just the kinds of foods guest are looking for on the "Holiday Food Table" and Marcia Clinton and Eileen Widger have mastered the task of assembling a display of Grandma's Attic items. Our quilting team (Jane and Adelaide) created a beautiful selection of items for the home and Belinda W. contributed an original hand-hooked wall hanging and several tree ornaments. So many members assisted by setting-up & cleaning-up; donating baked goods, sandwiches, cookies; serving as tea hosts or hostesses, handling craft item sales; and donating funds for food supplies. And lest you think this event is only put on by the ladies—we couldn't manage without the men in the parish. They helped in setting up & taking down, toting items from the backyard shed to Willard Hall, and even serving tea (Doug Edson & James Salisbury) and let's not forget our faithful cashier, Red Johnson. It is very heartwarming to witness this generous response from our small faith community.

We wish to thank everyone in the parish for their participation in making the 2017 Christmas Tea another success. At the end of the day a little over $2000 was raised for St. Luke's. In addition, Marcia Clinton boxed up items leftover from Grandma's Attic to donate to the Springfield Department of Child and Family Services for their Christmas party Saturday, December 9th. At the party for foster families, the kids are able to go "shopping" in the "store" for gifts for their families. The gifts are wrapped and tagged by volunteers so the kids have special gifts for the members of their families.

St. Luke's December Vestry Meeting Highlights

• Correspondence: Lillian Willis read a note from Marcia Clinton saying that, after 17 years of physically caring for the front gardens at St. Luke's, she is unable to continue and needs someone to take over those duties come Spring 2018. She is willing to meet with her replacement and discuss all aspects of the job that does so much to present the church as an attractive and appealing landmark in Chester. Interested volunteers are urged to speak with Marcia, whom we thank so much for her dedication.

• Maintenance Matters: Mechanical genius Andrew Pennell will look at Heidi's ever-irritating portable microphone whose noises or lack of sound make it impossible for parishioners to hear Heidi on Sundays. He will also look into a replacement for the broken microphone used for prayers of the people and will check out quirks with QuickBooks and the church computer that make reports and backups so difficult. John DesLauriers reported that the Knabe baby grand piano that Alison had offered to St. Luke's from her father's estate unfortunately would require too much work, so the church will have to deal with the instruments that presently exist. A letter from our insurance carrier said that flood insurance had been added to our policy for coverage of the church property and casualty insurance, so rates may go up.

• Church Musician: Anne Goodreau is playing at services and getting to know choir members through the new Saturday rehearsals. But some members cannot make those rehearsals, so alternatives will be explored after the New Year.

• Volunteers/Nominees: Besides a gardener for the front of the church, the positions of Pledge Treasurer, Assistant Treasurer, Treasurer, and Stewardship Chair need to be filled at the Annual Parish Meeting. Lynda Farmer is retiring as Assistant Treasurer and would like to be able to train a replacement as soon as possible. (Thank you, Lynda.) John Hoover who is retiring as Pledge Treasurer, has written up a description of those duties, and is eager to train a replacement. (Thank you, John.) David Carey has agreed to be on the Vestry and would replace Lynda Farmer. Jean Hancock is taking a leave of absence from church affairs and has resigned from the Vestry. Lillian Willis has offered to fill out Jean's term as her own term ends in January 2018. Belinda Whipple Worth will sign on for another three-year term with the understanding that she will resign after one year. That line-up would keep the present number of Vestry members and scheduled terms all on schedule. All candidates will be voted on at the January Annual Parish Meeting.

• Bishop's Visit on Wednesday, January 10: Every other year, Bishop Tom visits mid-week, and 2018 is St. Luke's turn. Since Tom is retiring, this might be his last visit. Tom will speak about Outreach with Co-Chairs Sally Hoover and Jane Davis over lunch. Suggestion is to have a potluck supper with the Vestry and interested people with a short Vestry meeting afterward.

• 2018 Budget Discussion: An Excel spreadsheet with three potential budgets (Faith, Middle Ground, Balanced with drastic cuts) was emailed by John DesLauriers to the Vestry for advanced review. Letters with comments/suggestions were sent by Lew and Bonnie Watters and Janice Fielder—long-time members of the church. Red Johnson wants to buy a push mower, and proposes that he and volunteers will cut the lawn to save \$900. Age and inclination of parishioners made it unlikely for volunteers to cover cleaning and possibly mowing. Having a Musician was deemed essential. The only real areas for meaningful savings are Out-reach (having individuals give personal donations, rather than the church or possibly just not tithing Outreach), heat (meeting in Willard Hall January through March), and Rector's salary (decreasing the time from $\frac{3}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$). Heidi was asked to detail the tasks and responsibilities she performs weekly and the times involved to see what tasks might be taken on by volunteers. One letter suggestion was to have a fall meal fundraiser; but two new fundraisers are already planned for 2018, and we cannot know their success yet: Plant Sale in spring, two fall breakfasts to appeal to Fall Festival shoppers and leaf peepers. Other letter suggestions included getting a year-round tenant for Willard Hall (would hamper church activities, particularly if we meet downstairs in the winter), capital campaign (previous one for 125th was run by a professional fundraiser when the parish was larger, and there is no persuasive reason for one now, except the church's need for more operational funds), and recruiting more families with children (has been a desire for years, but has not had the desired success, in spite of the popular LEGO Contest). The Vestry thought the two extreme budgets were too extreme. Members will consider the discussions and examine the line items in order to discuss them again at the next meeting on January 10 and to tweak the Vestry's choice so the parish could comment at the Annual Meeting. In presenting all three potential budgets to the parish, the minimal areas that can see savings will be highlighted. The approximate nine years the Faith Budget could exist before endowment funds are eliminated will be mentioned. The plan will be to reconvene the meeting as and if necessary to accept the recommended budget or to tweak line items for the final version.

• Next Regular Vestry Meeting: January 10th to vote on the 2018 budget.

• Annual Parish Meeting: Sunday, January 21. One service at 9:00 a.m.. Parish Meeting & Potluck Brunch to follow.

*Respectfully submitted,
—Lillian Willis, Clerk*

Kindred Spirits & Lots of Joy Generated at This Year's Wreath Decorating Workshops

The smiles on the faces of this year's wreath decorators bespoke joy: happiness in joining with friends, family, and other kindred spirits in decorating luxurious basic evergreen wreaths with myriad natural seeds, pods, berries, and different greens and ribbons—all supplied for them to use to create their most personal wreath. Good food and Christmas music complemented the sessions. The participants' delight and pride in their resulting wreaths were evident, and they, in the meantime, had accomplished one task for the holidays that would last well into the New Year. This year, in four different workshops the week before Thanksgiving, 34 people decorated 40 wreaths.

Special thanks for different and abundant greenery go to Pat Fromberger and Nina and Don Huffer, who also provided milkweed pods, berries, and scores of pine cones. Proceeds from the workshops enabled a $100 donation to the Chester Conservation Committee's Youth Environmental Camp Scholarship fund and realized over $900 for the church's General Fund.

Once again, we sold out of the wreaths. Therefore, next year will increase our order and encourage people to sign up very early so we can be assured of having enough for all who are interested. We encourage you to mark your 2018 Calendar for New Year's dates: November 15-17. That way you won't miss this program that gets all participants into the holiday mood, appeals to people who come from Chester and neighboring towns in Vermont and New Hampshire, and encourages both new skills and new friendships. If you've never done this before, we hope that next you will be a part of this activity that is drawing more men, women, and children each year. —Lillian Willis

A Story About Renewal & God's Promise of Spring...

Like winter, some seasons of our faith journey feel cold, barren, devoid of life. Will renewal ever come? Will spring flourish again in our heart? Yet the world bears witness to God's power to bring new life where all seems lost.

In the early 1990s, the St. Louis neighborhood of South City deteriorated sharply due to a stagnant economy, population decline and crime. Then Bosnian refugees started settling there. Thousands of people renovated abandoned houses and other buildings; they started businesses and brought skilled labor back to the neighborhood. As the area returned to life, the refugees experienced renewal, too—hope in place of discouragement, opportunities where none had existed, peace instead of war, life replacing death.

When our faith is challenged by despair, lost dreams or an uncertain future—when God's promises feel as dead as winter—real-life renewal stories are signs of spring. They testify to the resurrection God has in store for us.

St. Luke's 2018 Stewardship Campaign Report

John Hoover, our pledge treasurer, reports that as of December 31st 26 pledge cards were returned with 24 pledges totaling $63,090 which represents a 2.6 % increase over 2017. Unless further pledges are received this is the number the Vestry will be using in the proposed budget to be approved at the January 10th Vestry meeting. If, by chance you, haven't pledged yet and mean to do so, please mail your pledge card to the church or place it in the collection plate as soon as possible.

I would like to thank John Hoover for his detailed updates regarding pledge numbers as well as his years of service as our pledge treasurer. And thank you to all that have made a commitment to support the ministries of St. Luke's through your pledge offerings.

Nominating Committee Report

At this year's Annual Meeting on January 21, the church members will be asked to elect new members to the Vestry as well as three Diocesan Delegates and three Alternates to represent St. Luke's at the 2018 Diocesan Convention in November. Two current Vestry members are ending their terms: Lynda Farmer whose term ends and Jean Hancock, who is taking a leave of absence from church affairs. Belinda Whipple Worth is willing to be nominated for a 3-year term*, Lillian Willis, who's term also ends, is willing to be nominated to fill out the 2-year term vacated by Jean. A new candidate, David Carey, will be nominated to serve a 3-year term. Nominations will also be accepted from the floor. Diocesan Delegates & Alternates will also be elected from the floor, so be thinking about who you think would be good representatives from our parish.

*[Read Vestry Highlights on page 4 about nominations.]

It is about expanding our own parameters and boundaries, so that we can imagine God's love for those who frighten or shock us. A Christmas Thank You

Dear St. Luke's,

Thank you so much for your kind and generous Christmas gift this year. Due to the very cold weather, Doug and I decided to stay closer to home this year. However, we did take excursions away from Chester, visiting some wonderful food and shops in New Hampshire and also here in Vermont.

We hope this new year will bring you and your loved ones much warmth and joy in Christ our Light.

*Happy New Year,
Doug & Heidi+*

Final Reminder... Annual Reports Due January 7th

The 2017 Annual Parish Meeting will be held on Sunday, January 21st following the one, 9:00 a.m. worship service. Lew & Bonnie Watters have graciously agreed to compile the Annual Report Booklet in preparation for this important meeting. This is a final reminder to members that all reports must be submit by Sunday, January 7th. This will enable us to have the completed booklets in church by Sunday, January 14 so everyone can read and inwardly digest the contents ahead of time. Lew prefers to have the individual reports in a Word document in Times New Roman, 12-point single-spaced, or in the body of an email. Send to: lewbon@vermontel.net. Many thanks.

Winter's Gift

"God ... does great things beyond our knowing. He says to the snow, 'Fall to the earth'; likewise to his heavy, drenching rain. He shuts up all humankind indoors, so that all people may know his work" (Job 37:5-7, NABRE).

Snow, ice and cold can make winter a hassle. "Snow days" due to a blizzard may thrill students but usually inconvenience parents. But now and then, winter blankets the earth so heavily that it seems to quiet everything. We're granted permission to hunker down at home, snuggle close with family or pets, enjoy a book or movie, make cocoa or cookies, and rest. It's like a surprise sabbath—the gift of grace-time—when no one's expected to get out the door or the driveway.

Perhaps indeed, as Job declared, God sees fit on such days to put our busyness on hold and shut us all indoors so we pause and remember his work—his place—in our lives. Praise God for snow days! —Heidi Mann

Bishop Ely To Visit St. Luke's

Bishop Thomas C. Ely will be making his annual visitation to St. Luke's Church in Chester on Wednesday, January 10th. He will be joining us for the Adult Study at 10:30 a.m. in Willard Hall (read article below); meeting with some of the Outreach committee members for lunch; then joining us for a Parish Potluck Supper at 5:30 p.m. back in Willard Hall. This will be a special opportunity to meet and chat with Bishop Tom, so we invite everyone to participate in any part of the day's activities. Janet Hunter will be making "Habitat Bean Soup" as the main course for the potluck supper and asks others to bring side dishes such as salad, bread, fruit or dessert. Please contact Janet to let her know what you can bring.

Join Us For A New Adult Formation Study On The Gospel Of John Beginning January 10th

The Mid-Week Adult Formation group will be kicking-off the New Year with our fourth and final Study from the series: "Conversations with Scripture: The Gospel of John," written by the Very Rev'd Dr. Cynthia Briggs Kittredge. For those of us who have been following the "Conversations" book series, we began with Mark's Gospel and continued to follow each lectionary year's cycle with the other Synoptic Gospels. Since beginning, we have made a full circle with the Sunday lectionary readings. Because Mark's Gospel (Year Two cycle) incorporates much of John's Gospel in periods of the church year, we will be using this opportunity to take a closer look at this Fourth Gospel.

Dean Cynthia Briggs Kittredge introduces the Gospel of John as paradoxical for contemporary Christians: on the one hand, the text points to clear boundaries of faith while, on the other hand, calling us as Christians to embrace the worldwide community. Our Study of this Gospel will highlight some of these tensions. Together, our goal is to address some of these tensions and discover this Gospel's meaning for us today as contemporary disciples of Christ.

Our first Session begins at 10:30 a.m. on Wednesday, January 10th this new year. We will be using the Bible plus the "Conversations" book. Please see me for a copy of this book. Bishop Tom Ely will be joining us for this first Session, (so please feel free to come join us on that day.) Each Session is stand-alone and is open for all. Coffee and snacks will be on hand each week. —Heidi+
