Advent Penitential? Not!

Sometimes churches treat Advent as a mini-penitential season, but I do not think that really fits with the essence of Advent. This is a season of waiting for and anticipating the amazing gift of God-incarnate in Jesus. It's the season when we start a new church year and I'd invite us to be thinking about how best to welcome Jesus into our community, into our life, into our families and into our midst. What would make the baby Jesus smile, giggle and rejoice at coming into this human family? My hunch is that one thing would be our thoughtfulness around gift-giving.

In my family I grew up with increasing numbers of gifts as our financial situation improved. It was not bad or even "over-the-top." But, when I actually reflected upon my slipping into the same pattern with nieces and nephews, I got uncomfortable with giving "stuff" that might or might not actually be used or even wanted. So, one Christmas I took the plunge: I made donations to ERD (Episcopal Relief and Development, our church's international relief and development arm at www.episcopalrelief.org) and bought everyone "Gifts for Life." That meant that "under the tree" there was an envelope from me with a certificate saying that their Christmas gift was a donation supporting education for children affected by HIV/AIDS, or buying mosquito nets and training to prevent malaria or supporting women's literacy groups, or helping build a well for fresh, clean water for a village. I was a little afraid that I'd be seen as a new kind of Scrooge, but instead I got amazing, positive feedback. They thanked me for helping them make the world a

From the Senior Warden

Plenty In The Parish

I arrived at the church very early on the day of the Bishop's annual visit to St. Luke's, so early that I encountered Lew and Bonnie making things sparkle after a big funeral the day before. We'd held a big reception after the funeral, and I was counting on lots of leftovers for the table this morning. There wasn't much left, though. I laid out a platter of sliced bread and a dish of butter, made the coffee, emptied tortilla chips into a bowl and gazed at the expanse of empty white tablecloths. This was supposed to be a banquet, but the table was mostly bare, except for the cake and finger sandwiches I had brought. It was 9:15. What were we going to do? Do? I shook off my worry and let God handle it.

By 9:45, the tables were groaning with salads and cakes and cookies and deviled eggs and brownies, and I was once again amazed at the generosity and effort that I saw marching in to Willard Hall. Why had I worried? Even though everyone had contributed fare for the funeral the day before, they baked and cooked all over again to provide the Bishop with the St. Luke's celebration that we're famous for, and the reception was wonderful. Sugar and butter are dear, and presents and holiday food are, as well, but no one ever hesitates to contribute something special to eat at a St. Luke's event. God has blessed us with the gift of hospitality. God always provides. There's always just enough as we struggle. God has our back, and He never abandons us. He's just there, watching and waiting until we need His help, and then He provides.

As we walk together on The Way in Advent, waiting and watching for all that will come, we bid a fond farewell to the beloved Harrisons, Norm and Ruth. May God fill their new home with joy. And we have to also bid farewell to Thad at the New Year, which will be hard for all of us. He has been a wonderful pastor and teacher, and we've been blessed by his presence in our lives.

Advent blessings to all of you,

Kathryn

Would you know your Lord's meaning in this? Know it well; Love was his meaning. Who showed it to you? Love. What did he show you? Love. Why did he show it? For love: Thus was I taught that Love is our Lord's meaning.

Advent Penitential? Not!

better place! Now, I am not sure they all turned around and sent donations someplace to continue making the world a better place. But I was so sure that I had done the right thing that for the last 10 years or so that's what I give family for Christmas: gifts that make the world a little better for someone in need.

Then, after Jesus arrives (Dec. 25th), I have another tradition: before New Year's Day I check my finances on my computer and make sure that I have given away a slightly higher percentage of my income this year than last year. I really want Jesus to know how excited I am that God would come to us in human form so that we'd "get it:" God loves us! So, in thanksgiving for that, I make sure I am as grateful this year as I was last year, plus a little something more.

Finally, I am so grateful this year to have been able to walk these 6 months with the wonderful people of St. Luke's. You are a small, thriving, loving community of Christians trying to work out how to be faithful to God in these times and challenges. Are you perfect? No! but you are willing to try to work together and find the best way forward. As you come closer to calling a new rector, may you find that the Holy Spirit has been working in your midst the whole time and is with you on the continuing adventure of being St. Luke's.

Blessings,

Thad

Christmas Memorials: Poinsettias Are A Time-Honored Tradition

Once again, the altar guild will be adorning the sanctuary with scarlett red and creamy white Poinsettia plants for the Christmas Season and the celebration of the birth of Christ. Here at St. Luke's these beautiful flowers are given as memorials for departed loved ones, in celebration of a special occasion, or in thanksgiving for family members and special friends. If you wish to participate in this lovely tradition send a check payable to: "St. Luke's Church" with a memo, "Christmas Memorial Flowers" by December 15th to: Adelaide Johnson, 294 Hill Top Rd., Andover, VT 05143. Please include a note with the names of persons you wish to commemorate, PRINTED CLEARLY, and indicate whether the persons named are for a "Memorial—those who have died" or are a "Thanksgiving – for those still living.

Sean Whalen was inspired to recite this poem, by John Milton, for the congregation at the end of the 10:00 a.m. service on Sunday, November 16, after hearing Bishop Tom Ely's sermon that morning on Matthew 25:14-30 (the servant and the talents.)

When I Consider How My Light Is Spent

John Milton, 1608 - 1674

When I consider how my light is spent,
Ere half my days in this dark world and wide,
And that one talent which is death to hide
Lodged with me useless, though my soul more bent
To serve therewith my Maker, and present
My true account, lest He returning chide;
"Doth God exact day-labor, light denied?"
I fondly ask. But Patience, to prevent
That murmur, soon replies, "God doth not need
Either man's work or His own gifts. Who best
Bear His mild yoke, they serve Him best. His state
Is kingly: thousands at His bidding speed,
And post o'er land and ocean without rest;
They also serve who only stand and wait."

Church School Update

Children are invited to join Jean Hancock on December 14th to learn about being acolytes and ways to help. The rest of the month is not yet planned out. Please remember that the key to "Church School" on Sunday is to give the children an age-appropriate opportunity to know they are loved, that God loves them and that they are a beloved part of this community. Whether they are downstairs or upstairs, that is our ministry with the children. If you are interested in helping in anyway, please let Sean Whalen know.

Meet St. Luke's Newest Member

Our congratulations to the Buchanan Family as they welcome the newest member, Sam. His parents, Jessica and Sean, report that Samuel Michael Buchanan was born at 2:54 a.m. on Friday, November 14, 2014. He weighed 8 lbs 5 ounces at birth and is, so far, a sleepy little guy. His big sisters Sophia and Penny are doing a great job of helping to take care of him. (See Bonnie Watters profile on the Buchanan Family in the November LITS).

Bishop Visit & Pledge Ingathering

Bishop Tom Ely was warmly welcomed at St. Luke's on Sunday, November 16. During the 10:00 a.m. service he invited children to gather around him as he sat on the steps leading up to the altar. He shared the gospel story (Matthew 25:14-30) about a master who entrusts his servants to take care of his property while he goes on a journey. Each servant is left with a different amount of talents to carry out the masters wishes. Bishop Tom told the children to think about the talents as the love that God shares with each of us and we are to share that love with others.

Following the service everyone enjoyed a special coffee hour and the chance to visit and chat with the Bishop.

Georgiana & George Cheney partake of the apples (fruits of our blessings gift from the Stewardship Team) after the Pledge Ingathering on Sunday, November 16th.

You Are Invited To A Service of Lessons & Carols…Sacred And Fun!

On Sunday afternoon, December 21st at 4:00 p.m. at St. Luke's, we will have an opportunity for our final preparations for Christmas: A Service of Lessons and Carols. The purpose is to hear scripture (stories of God's love for us) and to sing hymns and anthems (our response to those stories) so that we might be better reminded that Jesus is born for us. This is just a great chance to have fun, be together, invite family, friends, neighbors, worship God, and share a meal together! Following the service there will be a covered dish supper in Willard Hall featuring everyone's favorite dishes and desserts. Let Bonnie Watters (875-2114) know what you can contribute to this feast.

Thad promises at least two interactive readings (yep, you can't just sit and listen! You'll have to participate) as well as times for peaceful reflection. Moreover, a special offering for the needs of our community will be taken. We have received a matching gift of up to $200, so that we might fulfill the prayer that starts the service and includes: "And because this of all things would rejoice God's heart, let us at this time remember in his name the poor and helpless; the hungry and the oppressed…" Please plan to join us and invite others to come with you.

Save Cancelled Stamps, Card Fronts, Ribbons And Wrappings

Freddy Holden is making her annual appeal for everyone to save their cancelled stamps (domestic or foreign) leaving enough paper around the stamp so that they can be neatly trimmed. Also please save the fronts of any used greeting cards, Christmas or otherwise, plus scraps of ribbon and gift wrapping paper. The stamps go to charitable organizations and the greeting cards, ribbon and wrapping paper are recycled into new cards. Please put the stamps, card fronts, etc. in an envelope or a clear plastic bag and leave them on the table at the back of the church or hand them directly to Freddy on any Sunday. Thank you

The more we understand God' love for us, the more we'll show God's love to others. —Author Unknown.

Christian Symbol: Cedar Tree

A species of evergreen used to decorate for Christmas, the tall cedar tree symbolizes Christ's majesty year-round. Cedars of Lebanon, which have grown to 130 feet, were know to Old Testament people. "The trees of the LORD are well watered, the cedars of Lebanon that he planted" (Psalm 104:16, NIV). David's palace and both Solomon's palace and temple were built of cedar wood. The word cedar is found 75 times in the Bible. Due to its evergreen nature and longevity, this tree is associated with eternal life and thus sometimes used in cemetery landscaping.

A Great Response To The Liturgical Discernment Process

Thad reported to the Vestry that he was thrilled by the congregation's response to this process. In the three times he'd done this exercise, this is the best response. He received the following suggestions for each category and has noted the responses:

Lector	13 suggestions	/ 4 accepted
Intercessor	7 suggestions	/ 2 accepted
Chalice Bearer	10 suggestions	/ 4 accepted
Preacher	5 suggestions	/ 2 accepted (one will delay for now)
Worship Leader	6 suggestions	/ 2 accepted (one will delay for now)
Acolyte	6 suggestions	/ 0 accepted

The most common reasons for deciding not to accept the discernment suggestion:

I am already too busy;
I do not believe I have this skill
Only 3 people did not respond to his email at all.

Next Steps: Thad will contact the people who have accepted, get their permission to share their names and proceed with some training (See Liturgical Training article below). (NOTE: The Worship Leader and Preacher training are more complex and require fulfilling certain requirements set by the National Church Canons.)

Liturgical Training Invitation

On December 14th after the 10:00 a.m. service (from about 11:22 a.m. to 12:19 p.m.) Thad will offer a Reading Aloud in Church Workshop. The workshop is open to anyone, but especially to the members of the congregation who already are or were discerned to have the gifts for being a lector, intercessor, worship leader or preacher. Participants will be asked to have read a short (11 small pages) article by the Rt. Rev. Frederick Borsch, retired Bishop of Los Angeles, entitled Suggestions to Those Who Read in Public. To get a copy of the article email Thad and he'll send you a scanned version that you can print, or ask him for a hard copy.

Thank You

At this time we would like to thank our church family for their prayers and caring thoughts during the past several months while Ray's health was declining. Also for the lovely service and reception.

All has been very much appreciated.

Our Labors Are Bearing Fruit

Your Ministry Discernment Committee has been very busy during the month of November. We have met five times responding to the names of candidates Canon Lynn Bates has given us. We immediately welcomed all candidates via email for their interest in St. Luke's and asked each of them for their resume, their Office of Transition Ministry Portfolio and to answer these three carefully drafted questions:

1. What interests you in becoming the 3/4-time rector of a small church in a small town in rural Vermont?
2. What has been the most rewarding or most enjoy able part of your ministry?
3. Please tell us about a time when you had a vision of a ministry and worked to bring others on board so that it might happen.

We were overjoyed with the responses we received from the limited number of candidates who all seemed to have a great variety of gifts, skills and interests that matched our parish profile and our vision for a three-quarter time Rector. MDC then broke into two teams of three to interview and record the candidates electronically, whereby we could see and hear each other in real time. The questions asked were again the same for each and were carefully crafted. With the video recordings to see and hear, we were better able to discern which candidates possessed the ministries that best matched St. Luke's needs and vision.

After some vigorous deliberation, our narrowed list of qualified candidates have been invited to visit Chester to meet with MDC and the Vestry, who have now all been drawn into the discernment process. We will be conducting in depth interviewing, performing reference checks, and listening to a brief worship service and homily. Our task now is about extending hospitality to the candidates and their spouses so that they may see and better understand the communities they will be serving.

Your Bother in Christ,
Lew Watters, MDC Chairman

Operation Christmas Child Shoeboxes On Are Their Way!

Thank you so much to all the people who helped make things, donated items, and helped pack the shoeboxes! As of this writing, we have filled over 200 boxes.

Looking ahead to next year, we will be holding our first Operation Christmas Child Workshop on January 11th after the 10:00 a.m. worship service.) We will be making bookmarks and assembling games. Please come join us in putting smiles on the faces of disadvantaged children!

In the meantime, keep a look out for sales on reusable plastic bowls and spoons to put in next years shoe boxes. A lady who went on a shoebox distribution witnessed children receiving hot gruel in their hands as they had no bowl to put it in. The food ended up on the ground where the child had to eat it from. (continued at top of page)

We can still use all kinds of covers, jar lids, small plastic yogurt containers, rubber bands, corrugated cardboard, cereal/cracker box types of cardboard and any other things you think we may be able to use. Thank you for the continuing supply of these items! —Cindy

Editor Footnote: I recently learned that in addition to all Cindy does in making Operation Christmas Child happen at St. Luke's, she makes and hand writes special notes that go in to every shoebox. This year that meant over 200 notes. The photo at right shows Cindy's angel note & message. It says: Merry Christmas and Happy New Year! We hope you like the things in your box. We want you to know how very special you are and how much Jesus loves you. We hope your heart is full of all the love and joy of our Lord and Savior. We're praying for you.St. Luke's Church, Chester, Vermont.

Supporting Soldiers

We have nine soldiers who are NOT receiving any mail except for whatever we send to them. Please take some time to write a note to them every week. We will be supporting these nine soldiers until June 2015. Think how happy they will be to receive an envelope full of love and good wishes from us. Children's drawings are especially appreciated no matter what. Look for the white basket in Willard Hall with a supply of blank notes for this purpose. Thank you.

The Win Cycle E-Waste Collection

The E-Waste Collection event held on November 8th at the Chester/Andover Elementary School, sponsored by St. Luke's Church and WinCycle of Vermont was a disappointment. Two 25 foot box trucks and four staff members were ready to collect unwanted and dangerous electronics from the public. Turnout by the Chester community was light despite good publicity in local papers, school newsletter to parents, and social media. Only 500 lbs. of electronics were collected, normally 8000 lbs. is the average collection.

Perhaps the general public saw little reason to pay the fees needed to support the convenience of local responsible electronic disposal, and WinCycle's reputation for responsible recycling. None of their collected waste leaves the US, and data destruction of old computer hard drives is guaranteed. Towns with free recycling centers do not destroy computer data, and this accounts for one of the major breeches of data theft worldwide. The WinCycle staff is willing to look into a repeat event, but only if a base of local institutions were to agree in advance to participate to cover costs. I would like to thank the Vestry for its cooperation and everyone who did bring their old and unwanted electronics. —Lew Watters

We're still doing okay financially although our income is a little behind the budget (-1.5%) as of the end of October. The Finance Committee is hard at work preparing next year's budget for the Vestry's consideration at their December meeting. Right now, it appears that it could be very challenging.
