Sweet Inspiration

From time to time I run across folks who write blogposts as a spiritual discipline. I like that idea and while I can hope that I might adopt it as a personal spiritual exercise, I am realistic enough to realize that I won't be self-disciplined enough to sit down at the same time every day to be all inspiring. There is only so much inspiration a body can tolerate in any given week! No ...I think perhaps my spiritual discipline in blogging will need to be found in the fits and starts of creative musing as I pray my way through the vagaries and quirks of life, sometimes being blessed to tune in to a higher frequency that shows up in unexpected ways. Here is something I wrote a while ago and during this time of Lent, it serves as a reminder that there is beauty in any wilderness we might find ourselves in, especially those that are not of our choosing. While this isn't a sermon, it was written with the sweet inspiration of something that was clearly speaking to me...and I willingly provided the pen and paper.

"Just So...Remember"

October 1, 2011

Excerpt from Psalm 19

"The heavens declare the glory of God; the skies proclaim the work of God's hands. Day after day they pour forth speech; night after night they reveal knowledge. They have no speech, they use no words; no sound is heard from them. Yet their voice goes out into all the earth, their words to the end of the world." (NIV)

JUST SO, MORTAL — doesn't the Lord God blush the sky pink in the rising of the day — sending forth rays of yawning light like spears of hope calling you to remember how He always finds you? Calling you to remember how you always find Him?

AND DOESN'T THE LORD GOD SHOWER THE EARTH with abundance and beckon the sun to share its warmth so plants might grow and animals find their food and all this for the whole day long? The world is always busy with God's revelation.

My Blessed Family

I received a lovely little blooming pink primrose in a bright yellow pot as a housewarming gift from a friend, and I was so touched by her gift. She'd included a wonderful Prayer for a New Home in her card. Then I received a lovely, hand-colored card with many wishes for happiness in my new home from another friend, and I was touched again. She'd signed the card with her name and ... "your St. Luke's Church Family".

We are a family. We need each other. We watch over each other, and help each other, and feed each other, and pray for each other in this, our beautiful community of Christ. We comfort each other in grief and illness. We know that help from anyone in the family is there for the asking. We love each other, and the Holy Spirit is always with us. Thanks be to God for you.

*Your sister in Christ,

collaborating to help local children and families in need. The beauty of PINS lies in its ability to convey a message of love, empathy and caring to vulnerable children who are experiencing feelings of loss, fear, isolation and grief. A child's realization that someone in their community cares for them makes an enormous difference to individual well-being.

The raffle's success depends on donation from parishioners. If you have something to donate (and we take just about everything) please contact a member of the PINS committee (Jane Davis, Norm & Ruth Harrison, Sally Hoover, Dee Robinson Eileen Widger, Cindy Roundy-Winston, Kathryn Wright or Marcia Clinton) to discuss your donations. We thank you for all your assistance.

So mark your calendar for the 16th and come join us for an evening of fun, friendship and lots of good food.

AND DOESN'T THE LORD GOD CAPTURE GLORY in the setting of the sun — slathering the waiting world with generous abandonment — coral-pink and florescent orange mellowing to the tease of teal and the tranquility of sapphire...a carnival of color celebrating the day's life that has just been lived.

AND DOESN'T THE DARKENING SKY release to a mantle of indigo—gentling the strident dissonance of the day and guiding the cradlesong of crickets to shush all to sleep — to rest — to be renewed while the stars keep their silent watch reflecting in silent splendor the wonders of God for any and all to witness?

THINK UPON THIS THEN, O MORTAL — the psalm you raise is an ancient one for the grandeur of God reveals itself daily through hurricane and blizzard — through drought and dust-storms — and even through dryness of spirit and weariness of soul.

ENTRUST YOUR WORN OUT AND FEAR-FILLED HEART, then, to this endeavor: remember how the whisper of God is in you as well as all around you. The whisper of God is always near — always near — you have only to look. You have only to listen. You have only to remember.

Blessings,
Rev. Carole+

Plate/Pledge Income	$ 11,165.33	$ 102,400.00	10.90%
All Other Income	$ 2,733.22	$ 21,160.00	12.92%

TOTAL EXPENSES	$ 10,008.06	$ 131,869.02	7.59%

We are now in a new year with a clean slate. As you can see from the above, we are off to our usual good start with income almost $4,000 ahead of expenses. This year the budget is as close to being balanced as any in the last several years, so hopefully we will end the year with a small surplus. We just ask all of you to keep up your pledges and continue using your time and talents as well as you have in past years. —The Finance Committee

Returning thanks for blessings already received increases our faith and enables us to approach God with new boldness and new assurance. As we reflect [on] the wondrous goodness of God toward us on the one hand, and upon the other hand upon the little thought and strength and time that we ever put into thanksgiving, we may well humble ourselves before God and confess our sin. —*R.A. St. Luke's Annual Meeting Highlights

St. Luke's 2012 Annual Parish Meeting took place on January 27 after the Sunday service and a tasty potluck lunch. Twenty-six parishioners attended, along with Rev. Carol Wageman, Interim Rector for St. Luke's, officiating. Rev. Carole opened the meeting at noon with a prayer and appointed Lillian Willis as Recording Secretary.

- Minutes: In the absence of precise minutes from the 2011 Annual Meeting, the Parish Meeting Highlights, as written in the 2012 Annual Report, were approved as a replacement. Rev. Carole explained the recommendation that no changes be made to the present configuration of the Vestry (even those whose term should have just ended.) The reason being it enables the leadership of the parish to remain stable while other things are in flux with the presence of a new interim and the beginning work of a Ministry Discernment Committee.

- Elections: Formal elections approved the slate of Sara Gagnon, Jean Hancock, and Mike Saul as Delegates to the Diocesan Convention and the slate of Richard Crocker, Lew Watters, and Kathryn Wright as Alternates. All those present gratefully accepted the following volunteer Chairpersons for fundraising events: (con't. above right)

Parishioners partake of a potluck lunch prior to the Annual Meeting on January 27.

August Supper – Bonnie Watters & Kathryn Wright;
(August Supper Silent Auction – Bill Hoyt)

Fall Tag Sale – John DesLauriers.

Christmas Tea – Pat Fromberger & Adelaide Johnson.

Maple Fest Dinner – Marcia Clinton.

Passover Seder – Bonnie Watters & Kathryn Wright.

- Ministry Discernment Committee (MDC): Chairman Lew Watters introduced the MDC members present and stressed that the search process should be a transparent one involving as many members of the parish as possible and that all are welcome to attend MDC meetings. The committee will be seeking a rector and does not have geographical limits to the search. The MDC will consult the past church profile and other relevant material. The committee will meet on February 24, with Lynn Bates, Diocesan Canon to the Ordinary & Transition Minister, to focus on the gifts each committee member brings to the process.

- MDC "Parking Lot": Rev. Carole facilitated a discussion and recording of a brainstorming "Parking Lot" exercise. While there will be other parish-wide gatherings generated by the MDC to gather further specific input, all involved felt we should take advantage of the annual meeting format to collect the hopes, wishes, fears, and questions that people might have in the early stages of the search process. The brainstorm list* was turned over to the MDC as one piece of information for its early reference. (*This list, as typed up by MDC Chair, Lew Watters, will be made available in a number of locations to be determined.) Other suggestions of material to be considered include Vestry Retreat notes from the session with Martha Stretton on the Mission Statement and parish asset mapping.

Annual Meeting con't. ...

Rev. Carole announced that she and the members of the Transition Team (Lew Watters, Chair MDC; Kathryn Wright, Senior Warden; and Lynn Bates, Diocesan Transition Minister) plan to have monthly phone discussions about the progress of the transition process.

• Presentation of the 2013 Budget.

In Treasurer Sally Hoover's absence, Finance Committee Member Peter Rosengarten praised Sally's excellent work and pointed out that Sanford Johnson, Priest Associate (who also was absent), receives no remuneration for all the work he does regularly as volunteer clergy for the parish. Peter reviewed the finances for 2011 (deficit of $12,847.44) and 2012 (surplus of $9,012.58 because of Father Paul's early retirement), and projected that the proposed 2013 budget, which had been approved by the Vestry, was realistic because the present Interim Rector is half time. However the church, built in 1868, needs some repairs in 2013; and there has been a drop in full-time pledges—a situation that needs to be addressed.

The meeting closed with a prayer by Rev. Carole and was adjourned at 1:05 p.m.—Lillian Willis

New Pastoral Care Team Welcomes Your Participation And Prayers

St. Luke's has formed a Pastoral Care Team, initially made up of Rev. Carole Wageman, Lynda Farmer and Kathryn Wright. (Lynda and Kathryn are licensed as Eucharistic Visitors by the Diocese, and have recently taken Holy Communion to Bud Watson, who is no longer able to attend worship services.)

Pastoral Care is care for the spirit, and it takes many forms. It can be a phone call to a check on a parishioner who wasn't in church on Sunday. It's bringing conversation, prayer and the Eucharist to someone who is home-bound. It's visiting people in the hospital. It's a card to a grieving widow, or a card to remember a birthday. It's a cup of tea and conversation with the lonely. If you'd like to be involved with this mission, speak with Rev. Carole.

Join Us In Prayer

The United in Prayer Group gathers on the first Monday of each month, 6:30 p.m. in Willard Hall. This month the meeting falls on March 4. All are welcome to attend. If you have any prayer requests or questions, email Sara Gagnon at pinkpsyche@live.com and do come join us.

St. Luke's Invites You To A Passover Seder On March 24

St. Luke's Church invites you to join us in celebrating our eighth Passover Seder on Palm Sunday, March 24 in Willard Hall, beginning at 6:00 p.m. Suggested donation: $10 age 12 and up, $7.50 age

5-11, under 5 free. Proceeds benefit St. Luke's Church. Please make a reservation by March 15th by calling the Harrison's at 875-2784, to reserve a spot.

The Passover Seder marks the night when the Israelites were "passed over" by the angel of death when the tenth and final plague (the death of all the firstborn) was visited upon Egypt. The angel passed over all homes marked by lamb's blood on the lintel and two doorposts. The original verb for "pass over" is posach, and its noun form is pesach. Thus, the lamb whose blood on the lintel and two doorposts ensured salvation, was referred to as the paschal lamb. The paschal lamb was then eaten that night: "and ye shall eat it in haste: it is the Lord's Passover." (Exodus 12:11).

The menu is traditional and within our parish family we have gifted cooks to prepare the lamb, goat and chicken, roasted potatoes, tasty vegetables, tossed salad, macaroons and meringue treats. Seder is a Hebrew word meaning "order" so there are special requirements like bitter herbs (radishes, horseradishes), matzah, haroset (apples, cinnamon and nuts), parsley and of course, boiled eggs. Preparation of the meal is one of the highlights of the celebration of the Seder. A favorite part of the evening for the children is when the leader breaks the middle of the three Matzah, leaving one half on the plate. The other half, called the "afikoman" is hidden and will be eaten after the children have found it at dessert time. The child who finds the hidden afikoman receives a prize.

Kathryn Wright and Bonnie Watters are organizing this year's dinner so if you have questions or wish to volunteer to help, be sure to let them know. Also look for a sign-up sheet at church. Here you can make your commitment to come, to cook, to prepare that Sunday afternoon and to clean up.

Space is limited to about 85, so make your reservations early and be sure to include Jewish families in our community in your plans. Circle the date March 24th on your calendars to ensure you don't miss out on this special event leading into Holy Week.

The Outreach Corner

Operation Christmas Child: An Update Of Needs

We had a very productive OCC workshop in February. Thank you Marcia, Sally, and Marlene Whitaker for helping. We made 23 popsicle puzzles, 6 moveable gingerbread men, 9 cardboard vehicles, 15 CD tops, one cover concentration game and decorated one box.

The next OCC workshop will be held on Thursday, March 14th from 2:00-7:00 p.m. We will be working on making things out of old jeans, felt creatures, and yarn balls as well as box decorating. You don't need any special talents to help us out. If you can cut, color, and glue, we need you! Everyone is welcome and refreshments will be available.

We can always use shoe boxes, covers of every size, shape, and color, buttons, toilet paper rolls, cereal box cardboard, and anything else you think will be useful. If you see any items on sale that would be good for the boxes while you're out shopping, please consider picking up one or 2 items. Recently, I got some wooden puzzles for 34 cents each on clearance.

Again, remember our "Change For Children" jar (at the entrance to Willard Hall) where we collect coins for the cost of shipping OCC shoe boxes. It's pretty empty at the moment! Remember that if we saved 2 cents every day (for a year) we will have the shipping for one box. We are accepting pennies!

Knit-A-Square Wish List

The wish list for Knit-A-Square this year (besides 8-inch squares) is for knitted and crocheted items for the older children ages 4-9 years. They are looking for warm tops, hats that will fit an adult, scarves, socks, gloves, mittens, and homemade toys the children can cuddle. Patterns can be found at:

<http://forum.knit-a-square.com/page/patterns>

Pine Ridge Reservation Appeal

Please save the Campbell product UPC codes and General Mill box tops for education for the reservation's schools. They will be redeemed for free merchandise for the schools. They can also use grocery, personal hygiene, diaper, and cleaning product coupons. [The Pine Ridge Reservation, S.D. with over 40,000 people, has immense needs. Families struggle with 80% unemployment, extreme weather conditions, and dire poverty.]

Pancake Supper A Sweet Delight!

Nineteen parishioners gathered on February 12 to enjoy the always sweetly delicious, Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper. Before heading off to Arizona, Bonnie Watters, left her famous pancake recipe in the hands of Kathryn Wright, who whipped up several batches of the lightest, fluffiest pancakes you can imagine. John DesLauriers, the grill master, has gotten the art of flipping pancakes down to a science, managing three griddles with ease. Sausage links and patties (donated by the Harrisons), John's home-produced darkly rich Maple Syrup and a fruit salad of fresh & canned fruits completed the menu. Rev. Carole provided some extra Mardi Gras pazazz to the evening, handing out sparkling multi-colored necklaces for all to don and jazzy centerpieces for the tables. The freewill offering will go to Episcopal Relief & Development. A grateful thanks to all who helped to make this such a tasty and joyful event.
